

RUMORED CARRANZA HAS BEEN CAPTURED

Mexico's New Cabinet to Be a Coalition, Including All Groups.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Persistent rumors were current here to-day that Carranza had been captured by Mexican revolutionary forces and that Gen. Obregon had given orders for his safe conduct from the country. No confirmation was obtainable either at the State Department or revolutionary headquarters. Gen. Obregon was at San Luis Potosi yesterday on his way to Tampico. This would take him across the line of flight pursued by Carranza.

The rumor concerning Carranza is said to have originated either at Tampico or Tuxpan. One such report was published in a Houston, Tex., newspaper. Mexico's first cabinet following the success of the revolution will consist of a coalition group which will aim to consolidate all political elements, according to telegrams to revolutionary headquarters. It is interpreted as meaning that wise counsel has prevailed in the ranks of the revolutionists, and that every possible effort is being made under the leadership of Gen. Obregon to stabilize the candidates as quickly as possible. Authentic reports say the revolutionary movements are unified and Gen. Obregon seems to be in complete control of the situation.

The election of an ad interim President by the Congress will occur next Monday, the President is elected to serve until December 1. His chief duty will be to stabilize conditions and superintend the elections, which occur on July 4. It is regarded as probable that the withdrawal of Pablo Gonzalez from the race for President was accompanied by a compromise suggestion that he accept the Presidency ad interim.

The Mexico city newspapers of May 18 announced that 200 recently captured Carranzistas, army officers of all grades, were given absolute liberty on May 17. It is also reported that approximately 2,000,000 pesos ($1,500,000) have been recovered from the trains captured from Carranza.

In answer to many telegraphic inquiries which have come from New York and other sources, Dr. Alvaro Torre Diaz, confidential agent of the Provisional Government of Mexico, stated to-day that the new administration in Mexico would continue to observe the previously existing rates and methods of collection of taxes and import duties that now exist.

"When the situation becomes more normal," Dr. Diaz said, "these rates will be made the subject of the closest study by experts. Meanwhile, in view of conditions existing in certain districts, it is very desirable that those paying taxes as well as import and export duties should exercise care to make their payments to the authorities legally authorized to receive them and get the necessary receipts, inasmuch as payments made to unauthorized officials, whether military or civil, would not be deemed legal by the Government and would necessitate a second payment."

FORTUNE PROMISED TO OUST CARRANZA

C. E. Jones Bares 'British Plot.'

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Charles E. Jones, who described himself as former volunteer agent of the Department of Justice, laid before the Senate Committee on Mexican Affairs to-day copies of correspondence purporting to tell of 1917 transactions between the Felix Diaz Junta in New York and representatives of the British Government regarding financing of a new revolution in Mexico against Carranza.

One letter presented, addressed to Diaz, said that "taking advantage of the Carranza-German deal, and assuring them of our friendly understanding with the United States and your purpose of establishing a strong Government favorable to the Allies, I have completed an arrangement with Col. Roberts of the English Embassy and Ellis Ashmead Bartlett of the English army."

"By it (the arrangement) the English Government will hand over to me as your agent through the person or corporation they deem most fit funds necessary for the triumph of your movement. The first installment will be $500,000."

The Junta, Jones asserted, used the expression "Mr. Middle" in referring to President Wilson in its correspondence and "Mr. Champ" in referring to William Jennings Bryan, former Secretary of State.

ASK WASHINGTON TO WHOM TO PAY TAXES

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—A delegation representing the more important industrial groups in Mexico asked the State Department to-day for advice as to the Mexican authorities to whom their taxes should be paid.

E. L. Doherty appeared for the oil interests and W. L. Loeb, Jr., of the American Smelting and Refining Company was the chief representative of the mining group. Secretary Colby took their request under consideration. The chief point at issue was whether export taxes should be paid at points of export to those actually in control or at the general tax office at Mexico city.

Why you are interested in an American merchant marine

PATRIOTIC Americans agree that a merchant marine is necessary to the Nation's welfare in peace and vital to its safety in war.

For decades before the war our flag was rarely met at sea.

America could not meet the competition of foreign ships, more cheaply operated and often fostered by government aid.

We have a great merchant fleet.

We must keep it.

But we must maintain American standards both in the shipyard and on the sea.

The Seaman's Act of 1915 improved conditions on board American ships and awakened a new interest in seafaring.

Legislation now pending in Congress

aims to perpetuate our war-built merchant marine.

American labor is vitally interested—

Because busy shipyards employ tens of thousands of men (350,000 during the war); there are as many outside of but dependent on the shipyards; ships employ thousands more;

Because our shipyards and ships cannot exist—much less pay high wages—unless wise shipping laws are enacted;

Because more ships mean more foreign trade,
which spells more work for American labor.
What department store would deliver its goods in its competitor's motor vans?

This legislation declares that the policy of the United States is "to do whatever may be necessary to develop and encourage" a merchant marine.

This policy merits the support of every American.
